LWR CHARGERS SC PARTNERS WITH D1 TRAINING

LAKEWOOD RANCH, FL – The Lakewood Ranch Chargers SC is excited to announce a new partnership with D1 Training. D1 Training is an athletic-based training facility that employs a “sports-science backed training regimen” led by certified trainers.

“D1 Training will provide our players an intense and much needed pre-season training and will challenge each player to improve both mentally and physically, as they will be motivated and challenged,” Antonio Saviano LWR Chargers SC Technical Director said. “The team at D1 cares and I have no doubt they will provide our players a place to learn how to train properly to develop their skills.”

D1’s core 5-Star Training Program is designed by a national training panel, where D1 then layers in skills-development training to create a well-rounded program. D1 utilizes trusted and proven training techniques used to build the world’s best athletes and deliver them in age appropriate programs led by expert coaches.

"We are excited to partner with the Lakewood Ranch Chargers SC and look forward to taking its athletes to the next level by helping them reach their goals this summer. We are community-focused and welcome the opportunity to be involved with local organizations like the Chargers," D1 owner Jeff Munafo said. "The goals and focus of D1 align well with that of the Chargers. We want to help athletes reach their athletic goals while also focusing on personal character - instilling the principles of integrity, honesty, dedication and commitment."

About D1 Training

Founded by former NFL player, Will Bartholomew, and based in Nashville, D1 Training is strategically expanding across the country through franchising.
